

Madison Capital Funding Signs UN-Supported Principles for Responsible Investing

Chicago, November 4, 2019 - Madison Capital Funding LLC ["Madison Capital"], a New York Life Investments company, today announced that it has signed the UN-supported Principles for Responsible Investing ("PRI"). Madison Capital has also established an Environmental, Social and Governance ("ESG") Committee chaired by Vice President Joseph McDermott. The committee includes leaders from its credit, investment management and compliance departments and is responsible for the firm's ESG focused policies, governance, reporting and education.

The PRI is recognized as the leading global network for investors who have publicly committed to integrating ESG considerations into their investment practices.

"Since Madison Capital's founding, a focus on ESG related issues and their potential impact on investment outcomes has been at the core of our underwriting and portfolio management practices. Signing the PRI further cements our commitment to incorporating ESG factors into our due diligence and investment selection process," said Mr. McDermott.

Over the last year, Madison Capital has taken several steps to formally incorporate ESG principles into its investment process and continues to encourage transparent corporate disclosures and sustainable business practices through its investment selection and interaction with sponsors and portfolio companies.
